Austin/Travis County 2-Gen Coalition Trainings

Public Charge Rule. This event is from 9-11 am on March 13 with Cheasty Anderson, Senior Policy Associate at the Children's Defense Fund. The details are on the Literacy Coalition Facebook page and folks can RSVP by emailing partnerships@willread.org.

Motivational Interviewing - Part 2. Continue to expand your interviewing skills at Motivational Interviewing – Part 2 offered by the Literacy Coalition from 9-11 am on March 27. This training is only for those who have taken the Motivational Interviewing Training – Part 1. RSVP at partnerships@willread.org.

Touchpoints Refresher. Touchpoints is both an approach to working with families AND a guide to predictable developmental challenges to parent-child relationships. This is a strength-based, culturally-sensitive model. The free workshop will address the needs of two professional audiences – those who want an introduction to the Touchpoints approach and those who have completed Touchpoints training in the past but need a refresher. The workshop is March 27 from 9-11 am. Registration links in 2-Gen Coalition newsletter.

Budgeting Bootcamp. Do you want to learn more about budgeting and savings? A certified credit counselor will facilitate a session on March 31 from 1-2:30 pm. Registration links in 2-Gen Coalition newsletter.

Credit Bootcamp. Do you want to learn more about credit? A certified credit counselor will facilitate the session April 9 from 1-2:30 pm. Registration links in 2-Gen Coalition newsletter.

Transforming Lives through Evidence-Based Supported Employment. IPS (Individual Placement and Support) is a trauma-informed, evidence-based approach to supported employment that helps individuals obtain and retain employment in mainstream competitive jobs. This workshop will provide an introduction to supported employment, explore the principles of IPS in practice, and allow for idea sharing among participants. Free training at LifeWorks East Site on April 16 from 9:00 am-12:00 pm. Registration links in 2-Gen Coalition newsletter.

Financial Coaching Training. This 40-hour training will allow organizations in the Austin area the opportunity to receive a nationally recognized financial coaching training at an affordable price. The training will be held on April 21-23 and June 2-3. If you are interested please email Paola Silvestre at Paola.Silvestre@uwatx.org.
