

UNITED WE FIGHT.
UNITED WE WIN.

LIVE UNITED

Success By 6 Stakeholder Meeting

October 18, 2018

United Way for Greater Austin

Goals for Today

- Networking
- Share wide variety of information in learning centers
- Solicit your feedback on what is most meaningful, and how future meetings will be structured

Agenda

- Introductions
- Learning Centers for Stakeholders
- Feedback Activity
- Announcements

Introductions

- Name
- Organization/Role
- If this is your first stakeholder meeting, let us know
- Very short announcements

Learning Centers

- Create groups by counting off
- Write down names if you don't know others in your group
- Rotating leader – introduce members at each station
- 8 minutes in each center
- Forced choices – what is most interesting or helpful?

LIVE UNITED

Reflect and Assess

What Stakeholder activities help you feel like a part of a collective movement?

Announcements

- Update on newest version of the School Readiness Action Plan
 - Finalizing all of the baseline data – deadline December 1
 - Create stronger accountability practices
 - Consider better name than SRAP
 - Start work on goals and strategies on January 1
 - Secure endorsements and create web-site
 - Publish new Plan in late April
- Bright Spots
 - National League of Cities – Mary Jamsek
 - Mayoral Debate – Both candidates commit to making ECE a top priority
 - City of Austin – studying child care; added funding for 8 PreK classrooms
 - New national AVANCE leader based in Austin, focused on innovation

UNITED WE FIGHT.
UNITED WE WIN.

LIVE UNITED™

LIVE UNITED

