

25 Native Plants that Attract 7 or more Native Bee Genera*

Adapted from Heather Holm's "Pollinators of Native Plants" By Tom Sullivan of Pollinators Welcome

Genera*	Common Name	Latin Name
15	Wild Bergamont	Monarda fistulosa
14	Black-eyed Susan	Rubeckia hirta
13	Common Boneset	Eupatorium perfoliatum
12	Swamp Milkweed Butterfly Weed Beadle's Tickweed Ox Eye Sunflower Virginian Mountain Mint Blue Vervain	Aesclepias incarnata Asclepias tuberosa Coreopsis palustris 'Summer Sunshine' Helopsis helianthoides Pycnanthemum virginicum Verbena hastata
11	Fox Glove Beardtongue Cup Plant New England Aster Golden Alexander	Penstemon digitalis Silphium perfoliatum Symphoricarpos novae-angliae Zizia aurea
10	Big Leaf Aster Spotted Geranium Yellow Cone Flower	Eurybia macrophyllum Geranium maculatum Ratibia pinnata
9	Anise Hyssop Purple Coneflower Creeping Jacob's Ladder Ohio Spiderwort Common Ironweed Culver's Root	Agastache foeniculum Echinacea purpurea Polemonium reptans Tradescantia ohiensis Vernonia fasciculata Veronicastrum virginicum
8	Harebell	Campanula rotundifolia
7	Wild Lupine Blood root	Lupinus perennis Sanguinaria Canadensis

Tom Sullivan, M.A.L.D. www.PollinatorsWelcome.com 413-325-1769

* genera is plural of genus; for example the genera, Bombus, contains about 4 dozen species of nest-building bumblebees in North America.

Visit www.WMassBees.org (Western Mass Pollinator Networks) for information about helping pollinators and certifying your yard or garden as a "pollinator friendly habitat".