

CCDN Pillars

Unity = Family Foundation

Our focus is to help unify families and communities by building faith-based principles and foundation through education, enrichment, and advancement.

Community = Growth

We provide a platform for communication with families that creates enhanced growth allowing our families to become productive, strengthened, and unified.

Legacy (Work) = Future

We are innovators! Our programs and services allow families to understand the importance of building a legacy and a future sustaining their families into positive outlooks and setting goals.

Community Care Development Network

Since 2014, Community Care Development Network (CCDN) has engaged the community helping youth, families, and individuals obtain empowering opportunities to help them rebuild and restructure their lives.

Throughout the years CCDN has served households through its programs within the Birmingham Metropolitan area and beyond.

Community Care Development Network is comprised of leaders in the community to help develop and maintain local programs. Community Care Development Network is a faith-based non-profit 501c3 Organization that specializes in healing and helping the whole family. CCDN's purpose is to help heal the whole family through our community-based programs.
