

Pen Parentis House of Lit Party on GOVERNOR'S ISLAND - indoor activities curated by Mutha Magazine

Celebrating Writers with Kids!

After putting kids to bed, do you work on a manuscript, short story, or poem? Ever set an alarm for 5:am to get an hour of writing in before you have to make breakfast for the crew? Is the sound of happy kids screaming soothing to your ears, because you can only write during soccer practice, robotics class, violin lessons, kid yoga, Kumon, or on a bench at the playground?

You are a Pen Parentis Author.

Join Pen Parentis and Mutha Magazine for a whole day of interactive, literary-themed activities great for all ages. Bring the kids if you have them. Or not. Your call. This is a about YOU having fun.
