

MISSION

To enrich the lives of those in need, provide assistance to the elderly, and contribute to the overall betterment of the communities we serve.

Davina Cook is the Founder and Executive Director of Josie's House of Help, Inc., a nonprofit organization that is here to assist senior citizens in need.

Davina formed this organization a few years following the passing of her grandmother, Josie Burnett. Giving back to those in the community was something Mrs. Burnett did on a continuous basis, and Davina felt that starting a non-profit organization would be the prefect legacy of her grandmother.

In addition to giving back to the community through Josie's House of Help, Davina is a published author of a book titled A Woman's Worth.

Josie's House of Help is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. All contributions are fully tax deductible.

100% of all charitable gifts and donations are retained by the organization.
